Argument Before the Court.

LUNENBURG, C. H., VA., via ME-

MERRIN, VA., Nov. 11.—Special.—Captain Wise and Judge Flournoy arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning. Judge

Mann, Commonwealth's Attorney New-lett, Robert Southall, and Judge Orgain were closeted in Mr. Neblett's office for two hours this morning. Disappointment could be read on the faces of about five hundred people who had assembled to see the prisoners and military, and even at a late hour many people who were not aware of the action of Governor O'Ferrall could be seen wending their way to the court house. The court was held at 10 o'clock this morning. Judge Mann presided and Judge Orgain acted as clerk. The case of Pokey Barnes, Mary Barnes, and Mary Abernathy, "but these prisoners not being here," he adjourned the court to tomorrow. He also expressed his great surprise that they were not here and that Governor O'Ferrall had taken them into his own hands. He then asked that the following orders be in-sued:

THE ORDERS.

Orders of the County Court of Lunenburg. When M. C. Cardozo was acting as sheriff, in demanding said prisoners, acting under the order of this show cause, if any he can, why he should not be held as a prisoner in

VERY BRILLIANT BALL.

THE MANICOTEMPLE A SCENE OF

SPLENDOR LAST NIGHT.

Most of Richmond's Prominent Hebrews

Present—A Hall Beautifully Decorated—The Magnificent Banquet.

The grand ball-room of the Masonic Temple presented a beautiful scene last night, on the occasion of the opening ball of the Jefferson Club. Large as the hall is it was almost filled by a festive throng most of the prominent Hebrews in the city being present, and the ladies in their beautiful evening costumes, and the gentlemen in perfect fitting full dress, moving through the intricate figures of the dance, presented a picturesque and pleasing scene.

THE DECORATIONS.

The hall was transformed into a perfect honeycomb of light, the walls being covered with garlands of flowers, palms, potted plants, and pure white chrysanthemums, while the twelve muni-cipals, under the leadership of Professor Stein, were almost hidden from view by the masses of chrysanthemums, through which fragrant flower floated delicious strains.

The most unique and pretty feature of the decorations was a large number of the cages, containing canaries, depending from the various chandeliers. Over the cages fell masses of ivy in a shower of living green, beneath which the little golden-hued songsters sang in the commandable work you have in hand.

Yours very truly,

S. W. TRAVERS.

TO RELEASE LIGHTNING.

SUPREME COURT DECIDES AGAINST

THE SAWYER-MANN PATENT.

The Validity of the Berliner Transmitter

Patent Must be Tried Before the Highest Court.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The Supreme Court of the United States to-day, in an opinion read by Justice Brown, sustained the Edison incandescent-light patent against the claim of the Berliner Consolidated Electric-Light Company, using the Sawyer-Mann system, of which it was alleged that the Edison system was an infringement. The Court said that the claims made for the Sawyer-Mann pat-held Saturday, it was decided to renew in still stronger language the demands upon the Porte regarding the state of af-
